

The Real History of the USA and Earth

Introduction

In the labyrinth of history and politics, what we are taught and what is true often diverge significantly. The story of the United States and the world as we know it today has been shaped not just by public events, but by covert operations, hidden alliances, and strategic manipulations. This documentary explores those unseen forces that have guided the course of history, offering an alternate narrative to the official accounts.

The following chapters shed light on the truth behind the birth of the United States, the manipulation of its political landscape, and the deep-seated power struggles that continue to shape our reality. What follows is a journey through time, uncovering secrets that were meant to stay hidden.

JFK's Historic Speech and the Monolithic Conspiracy

In 1961, President John F. Kennedy delivered a speech warning the world of a "monolithic and ruthless conspiracy" working behind the scenes to control global events. His words, long overlooked, now seem prophetic. Kennedy spoke of a unified conspiracy, a cabal that extended beyond individual groups like the Freemasons or Zionists. He warned of the creation of a monolithic structure—a pyramid capped by a final piece.

That piece, the "capstone," is said to symbolize the completion of a global agenda. Kennedy's vision was not just a warning for his time, but foresight into the present-day reality where global elites are working to complete this pyramid. Figures like Barack Obama, Hillary Clinton, George H.W. Bush, and others are parts of this network, all pushing towards a New World Order that would suppress individual freedoms and impose global control.

The Deep State and Global Control

A quiet but ever-growing force has shaped much of modern history—a force sometimes referred to as the "Deep State." This invisible government, operating behind the scenes, has long controlled world events, covertly manipulating politics, economies, and even societies.

The story of this power reaches far back in history, into the heart of globalist structures. With the unveiling of new technologies and a shift in power dynamics, there are growing efforts to expose and dismantle this system. In the United States, this so-called "Deep State" has roots deeply embedded in powerful families and international financial interests.

The Rockefeller and Rothschild families, based in Southern Germany, have played a central role in this covert world order. These families, alongside their associates, funded the rise of Nazi Germany, turning the U.S. into a pawn in the global war machine. Their influence extended to major world events, including the two World Wars, where they used both finance and politics to orchestrate power plays that furthered their agendas.

Centuries of Control: The Rothschilds, British Crown, and Vatican

For centuries, the Rothschild family, the British Crown, and the Vatican have exerted control over global financial systems, intelligence networks, and US taxpayer funds. These entities orchestrated influence through central banks and intelligence agencies worldwide, including Israel's Mossad, the CIA, MI6, and MI5. At the heart of their operations was Israel, founded by the Rothschilds and British Crown, utilizing the Khazarian Mafia—allegedly descendants of Cain—as their agents.

In a pivotal event recently, the Mossad headquarters in Tel Aviv was reportedly destroyed, signaling a significant disruption in this global intelligence nexus.

The Vatican, the British Crown, and Global Domination

The dissolution of the Crown Corporation and Vatican Bank began in 2016. During a Middle Eastern and European tour shortly after President Trump took office, both the Pope and Queen Elizabeth reportedly capitulated to him. This marked the end of their control over US taxpayer funds and global financial affairs, dominance that had lasted since the 1800s.

Trump initiated plans for a Global Currency Reset, involving 209 nations. This would see the privately controlled fiat US dollar replaced by a gold-backed US Note. In a historic act, Trump reclaimed six plane loads of gold stored in a Vatican underground tunnel—a tunnel also linked to the Vatican's International Child Sex Trafficking network. This subterranean system extended five miles beneath the globe, connecting locations such as Disney World in Florida, which was flooded by Hurricane Milton, rescuing multiple abused children.

The Satanic Roots of Power

Central to the power of the British Crown and Vatican was their alleged devotion to Satanic rituals, including child sacrifice and pedophilia. These practices were conducted through international child trafficking, organ harvesting, and Adrenochrome production. Kevin Annett and the International Tribunal into Crimes of Church and State (ITCCS) exposed over 500,000 missing Indigenous children from Catholic residential schools in Canada and uncovered 40 mass graves. Despite this, Canadian authorities and the Vatican have refused to allow further investigation.

The Khazarian Mafia (KM): A Hidden Power

Origins and Practices Emerging from Khazaria (100-800 AD), the KM became infamous for deception, identity theft, and dark rituals. Their practices included child sacrifice and blood rituals, hidden under the guise of religious legitimacy.

Historical Expansion By 800 AD, surrounding nations demanded the KM adopt a formal religion. The Khazarian king chose Judaism publicly but covertly continued Babylonian Satanic practices. Following their defeat, the KM went underground, resurfacing in Europe to infiltrate England and establish London as the banking capital.

Global Financial Domination Adopting the name Rothschild, the KM expanded their influence through international banking, narcotics trafficking, and orchestrating wars. The Federal Reserve and central banking systems are allegedly tools of their financial control.

A Legacy of Deception The KM's involvement in major global events, from the Russian Revolution to 9/11, showcases their manipulation of governments and economies. Their tactics thrive on secrecy and exploitation, though growing awareness threatens to dismantle their power.

Centers of Power: The Dark Symbols of Occult Allegiance

The power structures that sustain these dark forces can be seen in the symbols of the world's most influential centers. Washington D.C., the Vatican, and the City of London stand as independent entities, each representing the globalist elite's deep connection to occult practices. The obelisks standing in these cities are not merely architectural feats; they symbolize an allegiance to Lucifer, revered by the elite as the god of enlightenment.

Deep State and the Global Agenda

The globalist agenda, often referred to as the Satanic New World Order, seeks to depopulate the earth through pandemics, false flag wars, and human trafficking. Since October 30, 2017, Q-level intelligence drops have exposed these schemes, implicating entities like the CIA, FBI, and political figures in treasonous activities.

Zionism, Freemasonry, and the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints

The intricate connections between Zionism, Freemasonry, and the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (LDS) reveal a hidden dimension of U.S. history. Joseph Smith, founder of Mormonism, was a 33-degree Freemason and deeply tied to Zionist ideologies. In 1838, Smith declared Far West, Missouri, the new "Zion," emphasizing its spiritual and political significance. His assassination later underscored the profound forces influencing his mission.

The LDS Church's ties to Zionism remain strong, as reflected in its widespread construction of temples, including prominent sites in Salt Lake City and Washington, D.C. The church's substantial wealth and influence extend into political, financial, and military spheres. Notable LDS members, such as Paul Walker, Ken Jennings, and Mitt Romney, contribute to its international prominence. The church also reportedly controls extensive resources, including a doomsday seed vault, underground tunnels, and warehouses prepared for apocalyptic events.

The Power of Israel and Its Role in Global Control

Israel's pivotal role in global politics centers on its association with the Rothschild banking family, which exerts significant influence over global finance through entities like the British Empire and the Federal Reserve. This influence permeates political landscapes and economies worldwide.

Tensions in the Middle East, particularly between Israel and Iran, amplify global instability. These conflicts may catalyze the collapse of centralized systems governing global politics and finance, paving the way for decentralized technologies like blockchain and cryptocurrencies.

Agenda 2030 and the Collapse of Legacy Systems

Agenda 2030, building on the United Nations' Agenda 21, envisions a centralized global government. Critics argue it promotes mass surveillance, resource control, and authoritarian governance. Efforts by President Trump and allied military forces aim to expose and dismantle these plans, including purging corrupt officials and deconstructing entrenched systems.

As these legacy systems falter, technological advancements and decentralization promise to shape a new era, challenging the totalitarian vision of Agenda 2030.

Whistleblower General Flynn and the Golan Terrorist Network

General Michael Flynn's revelations exposed U.S. government complicity in funding and arming jihadist groups like ISIS. Flynn's findings linked the Obama administration, CIA, and NATO to efforts destabilizing the Middle East, including the Arab Spring and the Syrian conflict. High-profile figures, including Hillary Clinton, were implicated in these operations, which created power vacuums exploited by global elites.

The Israeli-Palestinian Conflict: Controlled Demolitions and the Deep State

The Israeli-Palestinian conflict, long a focal point of global tensions, is allegedly manipulated by deep state actors infiltrating both sides. Controlled demolitions in Gaza, often attributed to missile strikes, serve the interests of elites using the conflict to maintain control.

Powerful entities, such as the Rothschilds and the Khazarian mafia, influence Israeli governance and extend their reach into Ukraine and other regions, perpetuating systems of human trafficking and financial manipulation.

Illuminati Bloodline Families and Deep State Operations

Thirteen Illuminati Bloodline Families, including the Rockefellers, Rothschilds, and Kennedys, have historically dominated global finance and governance. By the 19th century, their control extended to central banks like JP Morgan and Goldman Sachs. Infiltrating institutions through Jesuit and Masonic leadership, they perpetuated systems of control using dark practices and rituals.

Assange, WikiLeaks, and Military Intelligence

Julian Assange's WikiLeaks exposed corruption at the highest levels, revealing connections between political elites, Hollywood, and global trafficking networks. Assange's influence has rippled through global politics, with military intelligence operations securing WikiLeaks data, purportedly containing explosive revelations that could destabilize the global order.

The Northern Virginia Army and the Preservation of the Republic

A secretive military group, the Northern Virginia Army, consisting of over 800 high-ranking officers, has worked since President Eisenhower's era to protect the Republic. This group identified Donald Trump as a leader capable of reclaiming the Republic and dismantling deep state structures.

The Seven Kingdoms of the Alliance

A coalition known as the Seven Kingdoms of the Alliance, comprising leaders from Russia, China, North Korea, India, Brazil, Saudi Arabia, and the U.S., opposes globalist forces. Supported by the Global White Hat Military Alliance, their mission includes restoring sovereignty and dismantling globalist structures.

BRICS Alliance and the Global Currency Reset (GCR)

Formed in 2008, the BRICS Alliance (Brazil, Russia, India, China, South Africa) initiated a gold-backed financial system as an alternative to fiat currencies. The Global Currency Reset (GCR), supported by the Chinese Elders and their vast gold reserves, aims to restore financial equity and challenge the existing system.

Turning Points in the Alliance's Mission

- 1903: Nikola Tesla and Van de Graaf uncover deep state secrets.
- 1993: Expiration of Chinese Elders' gold lease reveals financial manipulations.
- 2008: Formation of BRICS Alliance.
- 2018: National Quantum Initiative Act signed, advancing quantum financial systems.

- 2019: Rescue of 2,100 children from underground facilities in China Lake, California.
- 2020: Arrests of Illuminati leaders and ongoing military tribunals.

JFK's Vision and Modern Parallels

President John F. Kennedy's opposition to secret societies and media manipulation laid the groundwork for transparency efforts. His vision resonates in Trump's initiatives, including the Space Force and partnerships with innovators like Elon Musk.

Bitcoin and Decentralized Resistance

Bitcoin symbolizes resistance to centralized financial systems, aligning with the Alliance's goals of economic transparency and equity.

The Role of the U.S. Military and the Patriot Movement

The Patriot movement's resistance to deep state influence reflects a commitment to constitutional principles. Staged events, such as assassination attempts on Trump, are viewed as strategies to expose hidden agendas and rally public support.

The War Against the Constitutional Republic

Policies like Obama's Presidential Policy Directive 40 (PPD-40) signaled covert efforts to entrench globalist control. Trump's invocation of emergency powers and military authority marked a decisive response to these threats.

The Deep State's Plans for a Military Coup

Allegations of deep state plans for false-flag operations and martial law highlight ongoing power struggles. These events underscore the complexity of the battle for control over the United States and the world.

Targeting Corruption and Foreign Interference

Once in power, Donald Trump took decisive action to combat corruption and foreign interference. Executive Orders 13818 and 13848 were issued, targeting individuals in the U.S. government and private sector involved in corruption, election interference, and crimes against humanity. These orders initiated events aimed at exposing and dismantling the influence of these corrupt entities. The battle expanded to address both domestic corruption and foreign agents attempting to control U.S. politics.

During this period, a covert Deep State Military Operation emerged, involving plans to assassinate both Trump and his opponent, Joe Biden. The goal was to attribute the assassinations to foreign powers such as Iran and Russia, igniting a nuclear World War III that would establish authoritarian dictatorship in the U.S. through pandemics, vaccine mandates, censorship, and the suppression of dissenters. In response, a group of insiders known as the White Hats orchestrated a staged assassination attempt on Trump to expose these plans. This led to Congressional hearings and military protection for Trump, ensuring any future attacks would be seen as assaults on the U.S. military itself.

The Role of Musk and the U.S. Military in Exposing the Deep State

Elon Musk became a pivotal figure in the battle against the Deep State. Through ventures like SpaceX and Starlink, Musk's involvement in Game Theory Operations aimed to reveal the extent of global conspiracies, including the use of social media, government influence, and media manipulation to stage events like the COVID-19 pandemic. Musk holds crucial data servers containing evidence of a planned military coup against Trump and details implicating top political figures in creating the virus, promoting vaccines, and implementing global censorship mechanisms.

The files also include evidence about zero-point energy, a technology discovered by Nikola Tesla, promising infinite, free energy. This revolutionary discovery threatens to dismantle global energy monopolies and expose the criminal nexus behind financial systems, human trafficking, and war profiteering.

The Global Network of Influence

Key alliances emerged globally to challenge the Deep State's grip on power:

- Elon Musk: Connected with leaders like Vladimir Putin, Xi Jinping, and South American presidents, Musk's ventures became central to reshaping global influence.
- Trump and Musk: Collaborating strategically, Trump awarded Musk the largest military contracts in history to strengthen their partnership in this transformative era.
- JD Vance and Vivek Ramaswamy: Key figures aiding Trump's efforts to secure swing states and challenge global elites like Bill Gates.

The Rising Storm: Preparing for a Global Shift

Deep State efforts to consolidate power included Project Blue Beam, involving advanced holographic technology to stage a false flag alien invasion, uniting the world under a singular authoritarian government. The U.S. Space Force, led by Trump, Kash Patel, and Musk, countered these threats through initiatives like the Starlink network.

The U.S. has undergone a significant transformation under military control. The Insurrection Act and Trump's 2018 Executive Order ensure secure elections through a blockchain-based system, establishing a new government structure. Trump is recognized as the legally elected President of the United States Republic, with John F. Kennedy Jr. as Vice President, backed by over 50,000 secret troops enforcing this new government.

Shocking Revelations and the Global Awakening

Key developments included the exposure of Kamala Harris's alleged origins and disqualification from office, as well as claims of election fraud leading to her execution. These revelations form part of a broader plan to dismantle the global elite's power.

"The Greatest War Story of All Time"

In 2021, the battle against corruption reached a critical juncture:

- Evergiven Incident: The container ship's blockage in the Suez Canal exposed global trafficking networks. Special Forces discovered weapons of mass destruction, Adrenochrome, and trafficked children within its containers.
- Military Successes: By September 2021, Myanmar and Afghanistan were liberated, and global drug trade operations were disrupted under NESARA/GESARA laws.

The Pandemic and the Great Reset

The COVID-19 pandemic served as a premeditated effort to depopulate and control humanity. Vaccines were described as tools for weakening populations, sparking a call for justice through military tribunals. By 2021, over 2.7 million global Cabal members were executed, signaling a shift towards restoring peace and order.

The Quantum Financial Revolution

The Alliance introduced the Quantum Financial System (QFS) to reset global currencies and correct economic inequities. The Global Currency Reset (GCR) and Currency Revaluation (RV) challenged the central banking systems, reducing Western dominance.

The Hidden Empire of the Khazarian Mafia

Tracing back to the Khazarian Empire, dark rituals and secret practices gave rise to the Khazarian Mafia, influencing global power structures. By 1200 AD, Russia and neighboring nations dismantled these networks, though the elite continued their practices in secret, shaping modern geopolitics.

The Silent War in Deep Underground Military Bases (DUMBs)

A hidden conflict unfolded within DUMBs globally. Advanced tunneling technologies connected bases housing humanitarian abuses, including eugenics and child trafficking. Subterranean combat training began in 2018, led by the Space Force, to address these atrocities.

A Turning Point: October 2024

The Hunter Moon of October 16-17, 2024, marks a pivotal moment. Speculations about King Charles III's fall from power, the dissolution of the Commonwealth, and realignments in global currency systems indicate significant shifts in governance and alliances.

FEMA Camps, Martial Law, and Executive Orders

Executive Orders Enabling Control Over the past 30 years, a series of executive orders has enabled the U.S. government to assume control over transportation, communication, energy, resources, and civilian mobilization in emergencies. These include:

- EO 10990: Seizing transportation modes and infrastructure.
- EO 10995: Controlling communication media.
- EO 10997: Taking over energy resources.
- EO 11000: Mobilizing civilians under government supervision.
- EO 11921: Allowing emergency financial control without Congressional review for six months.

These orders form the foundation for potential draconian measures under martial law.

FEMA: The Shadow Government

FEMA operates under the guise of disaster response but functions as the real government, with federal officials serving as mere figureheads.

- Hurricane Helene Aid: A $750 relief payment doubles as a loan agreement that permits the federal government to seize an individual's property if unpaid.
- Blocking Aid Efforts: FEMA has redirected resources intended for American disaster victims to aid illegal immigrants, leaving citizens to suffer.
- Land Seizures: FEMA's activities include extensive land appropriations and resource control.
- REX 84: A classified exercise revealing plans to detain large numbers of American citizens deemed national security threats.
- Executive Orders: FEMA's authority extends to controlling communications, highways, and even mobilizing civilians into government brigades.

FEMA Death Camps The 1,000 FEMA camps across the U.S. symbolize a future of oppression, not disaster relief. These facilities are designed to hold thousands of prisoners and are strategically located near railroads and airports. Frameworks like EO 10995 and EO 11000 enable sweeping governmental control, with FEMA's power peaking under martial law.

Vanguard and BlackRock

The same entities inspecting Hurricane Helene victims' homes—Vanguard and BlackRock—also control major lithium mines in affected areas. Their ownership extends to FEMA-associated companies, consolidating power and influence.

The Deep State in Panic

As the Deep State scrambles to maintain its grip on power, growing awareness of its corrupt activities threatens its dominance. From the CIA and Pentagon to global intelligence agencies like Mossad and MI6, the elite cabal faces increasing exposure.

The Pandemic and Public Resistance

The pandemic, one of their most significant operations, has fallen apart, with less than 5% of the global population willingly accepting vaccines after 2023. This resistance signals a seismic shift in public consciousness.

The Coming Storm: Exposing the Deep State

President Donald Trump is viewed as a central figure in the battle against the Deep State. His administration's efforts to dismantle the globalist agenda have included targeting elites such as George Soros and Bill Gates.

Reports suggest a large-scale crackdown is imminent, involving:

- Arrest Wars: Mass detentions of corrupt elites.
- Military Tribunals: Public revelations and accountability.
- UN Crackdown: Reducing the United Nations' influence over U.S. governance.

The Return of Trump and Devolution of Power

Following the disputed 2020 U.S. presidential election, Trump and allies gathered evidence through military operations, including a raid on a CIA server farm in Frankfurt, Germany, proving election fraud. The process known as "Devolution" was initiated, bypassing corrupt structures and reestablishing lawful governance.

Exposing the Pedophilia Network and Global Elite

Revelations of human trafficking and pedophilia within the highest echelons of power have emerged as defining themes of the Trump administration.

Key Allegations:

- CIA and DHS: Running trafficking networks and utilizing military intelligence labs.
- Vice President Pence: Implicated in covering up trafficking networks.
- Bush Family: Tied to trafficking and global corruption.

Military Interventions

Military forces have conducted rescue operations, uncovering child trafficking networks and freeing hundreds of thousands of victims from underground facilities worldwide. Notable examples include:

- Washington D.C. Tunnels: Used for trafficking and torturing children.
 - Ukraine Labs: Bio-weapon experiments on trafficked children.

Operation Hammer: The Military Crackdown

Operation Hammer marked a turning point in confronting the Deep State. With over 450,000 sealed indictments, military tribunals and arrests targeted corrupt elites globally. Detention facilities, such as GITMO and others in Texas and Puerto Rico, overflowed with detainees.

The Fall of Babylon

The ultimate goal of these covert operations is the downfall of the Deep State, often referred to as "Babylon" in biblical terms. Events like economic collapse and global conflict are designed to provoke societal shifts, awakening the masses.

The Future of the United States and the World

The exposure of the Deep State's operations and the devolution of power are seen as necessary steps toward liberation. Anticipated changes include:

- Collapse of Financial Systems: Introduction of new systems like NESARA.
- Decentralized Governance: Blockchain technology reshaping transparency.

Through these revelations, humanity stands at a crossroads, facing the choice to embrace truth and justice or succumb to chaos.

The Khazarian Network and Global Conspiracy

The Khazarian network, with deep roots in global politics, has influenced pivotal events in modern history. From 9/11 to Covid-19, their orchestration aimed to consolidate power and control populations worldwide.

A Revolution for a New World

The "Great Awakening" represents a movement to reclaim sovereignty and challenge global financial institutions. By breaking free from imposed systems, individuals can dismantle the structures that have long suppressed freedom.

The Financial Reset: NESARA/GESARA

Parallel to political struggles, significant shifts occurred within the global financial landscape. The National Economic Security and Reformation Act (NESARA), developed over years, aimed to reset the global financial system. This system, entrenched in corrupt banking practices and controlled by the Deep State, included the abolition of central banking institutions such as the Federal Reserve and the IRS. NESARA's implementation promised to dismantle the USA, Inc. financial structure, viewed as a part of the Khazarian Shadow Government.

On a global scale, the Global Economic Security and Reformation Act (GESARA) envisioned an era of prosperity marked by the elimination of debt, reinstatement of sound money, and the abolition of oppressive financial institutions. This system sought to counter abuses by globalist bankers and multinational corporations, reclaiming control over the world's resources. Central to this initiative was the Quantum Financial System, leveraging quantum computing for transparency and freeing nations from central bank control. Additionally, a blockchain-driven voting system aimed to ensure the legitimacy of elections, and a Quantum Internet promised enhanced global freedom and information access.

The move toward financial independence included the adoption of gold and silver as legal tender in numerous U.S. states in 2024. This shift signaled a rejection of fiat currency systems and a return to economic practices grounded in the U.S. Constitution, promising accountability and reduced reliance on centralized financial entities.

The Cosmic Battle: Light versus Dark

The narrative of the USA and Earth's history is framed as a cosmic battle between light and dark forces, symbolized by a struggle between God and Satan. This struggle encompasses the influence of a reptilian bloodline linked to Satan and a human lineage connected to Jesus Christ.

One pivotal element is the notion that Israel will be "last" in the exposure of global corruption. The COVID-19 pandemic acted as a catalyst, revealing flaws and pure evil in global health care and political systems. This exposure is viewed as a precursor to unveiling deeper corruption within religious institutions. A significant theme is the manipulation of scripture by Satan, creating a false spiritual understanding that led humanity away from God. Symbolized by the serpent's infiltration into the Garden of Eden, this influence extended into global power structures, such as the Vatican and beyond.

The Hidden Hand of Power

The rise of an elite group, often identified as the Illuminati or Cabal, perpetuated control through manipulation of religion, race, and politics. Linked to royal families in Europe and Russia, this group is associated with ancient serpent symbolism and institutions like the Catholic Church.

Historical figures such as Abraham Lincoln are tied to significant bloodlines, intertwining their influence with major events.

Notable events include:

- Formation of ISIS (1855): Allegedly targeting Jesus Christ's bloodlines.
- Sinking of the Titanic (1912): Speculated as a deliberate act to eliminate opponents of centralized banking.
- Federal Reserve (1913): Marking the centralization of economic control.
- CIA and Mossad (1949): Created to consolidate global intelligence operations.

The Revolutionary War and the Illusion of Independence

The Revolutionary War, celebrated as a victory for independence, concealed continued control by the British Crown. Financial records indicate King George III funded both sides, ensuring the Crown's economic interests were safeguarded. Treaties like the Treaty of Versailles (1782) and the Treaty of Paris (1783) preserved British rights over American territories. Symbolically, the gold fringe on the American flag, a marker of maritime law, underscores the legal and economic ties to British influence.

Legal and Financial Subjugation

The U.S. legal system reflects colonial ties, operating under International Maritime Admiralty Law. Cases such as Respublica v. Sweers (1779) and Padelford Fay & Co. v. The Mayor and Alderman of Savannah (1854) reveal a system viewing citizens as tenants rather than sovereign individuals. Property ownership is effectively a lease, reinforcing dependence on state and federal entities.

Key Historical Events

- Big Pharma (1870-1930): Established under Khazarian influence to control health and well-being.
- Bolshevik Revolution (1917-1923): Furthering Khazarian dominance.
- Formation of Israel (1948): Strategic for global influence, particularly via the Rothschild banking empire.
- John F. Kennedy Assassination (1963): Involved a faked death, with JFK reportedly taking refuge under Aristotle Onassis' protection.

The Role of Israel

Israel's geopolitical role is tied to the Rothschild banking empire, controlling financial and political systems. The Rothschild family's influence extends to international conflicts, media, and finance, forming part of a larger scheme to centralize power.

This interconnected narrative reveals a history of manipulation, highlighting the ongoing struggle for truth, freedom, and sovereignty.

Watergate and the Revelation of Child Exploitation

In 1972, NYPD Detective James Rothstein arrested one of the five Watergate burglars, CIA operative Frank Sturgis. A two-hour interrogation revealed a shocking truth that diverged sharply from the mainstream narrative. The burglars weren't attempting to steal election strategies but were instead searching for a book detailing the sexual proclivities of high-ranking Democrat and Republican politicians. This book contained names of individuals who had accessed child prostitutes and outlined the financial transactions involved in the abuse of children.

Rothstein insisted that the Watergate break-in was primarily driven by the burglars' goal to find and retrieve these pedophile records, which were being kept at the Democratic National Headquarters. Washington D.C. was rife with knowledge of these abuses, and the existence of photos, videos, and recordings from secret parties involving politicians was an open secret. These materials were believed to be used as blackmail, with an international child trafficking network run by the CIA and the Vatican Mafia suspected to be behind it.

Rothstein's findings confirmed long-held suspicions—that intelligence agencies like the CIA and MI6 facilitated human trafficking, blackmail, and child abuse. These dark forces ensured the truth remained buried, their operations protected by corrupt systems designed to silence whistleblowers.

The Impact of 9/11 and the CIA's Role

The events of September 11, 2001, marked another milestone in the shadow war between the Deep State and the people. The destruction of the World Trade Center towers, especially Building 7, is believed to have been part of an intricate operation to cover up a larger theft of war gold. The CIA, under the influence of powerful figures like George H. W. Bush, allegedly orchestrated the theft of thousands of tons of gold from the basements of the towers, shifting the balance of world gold ownership in favor of the United States and its allies.

The JFK Assassination and Onassis Connection

The narrative surrounding the assassination of John F. Kennedy includes theories of his assassination being faked and connections involving Aristotle Onassis and Jackie Kennedy. This web of intrigue continues to raise questions about the true events of November 22, 1963.

The Lincoln-Kennedy Parallels

Abraham Lincoln and John F. Kennedy share uncanny parallels:

- Both were elected to Congress 100 years apart: Lincoln in 1846, Kennedy in 1946.
- Both were elected President 100 years apart: Lincoln in 1860, Kennedy in 1960.
- Both were deeply concerned with civil rights.
- Both lost children while in the White House.
- Both were shot on a Friday, in the head, by a Southern assassin.
- Both were succeeded by Southern Vice Presidents named Johnson.

The similarities extend to their assassins and the circumstances of their deaths, raising questions about fate and the forces shaping their legacies.

The Kennedy Family: A Legacy Rewritten

The Kennedy family's connections to Abraham Lincoln's lineage illuminate a hidden history. William Wallace Lincoln, the son of Abraham Lincoln, is a central figure in this narrative. William, later known as Omar Mukhtar, led a resistance in Libya and fathered descendants who connect the Kennedys to modern-day figures like Donald J. Trump and Elvis Presley. These ties reveal a complex web of familial and historical connections often omitted from public discourse.

Obama's Birth Certificate Investigation

Evidence and expert testimonies have cast doubt on the authenticity of Barack Obama's birth certificate, with allegations of forgery continuing to fuel controversy.

The Fall of the Deep State and the Second Pandemic Plot

By July 11, 2024, plans for a second pandemic were thwarted through an unprecedented information campaign. Across over 100 nations, awareness of the elite's agenda grew, leading to the abandonment of lockdowns and vaccine mandates. Secret vaccine warehouses exposed significant financial losses for stakeholders like BlackRock.

The Chevron Doctrine and Revolutionary Innovation

The 1984 Chevron Doctrine allowed federal agencies to interpret ambiguous laws, enabling monopolistic practices. Its recent reinterpretation dismantled barriers to revolutionary technologies, ushering in America 5.0—a transformative era of neural interfaces, Nanobots, anti-gravity vehicles, and faster-than-light space travel.

Operation Kraken and the Restored Republic

Operation Kraken, involving the 305th Battalion Military Intelligence Corps computer, validated Trump's 2020 election victory. On July 24, 2024, revelations of fraud led to the dissolution of US Inc., with JFK Jr. emerging as a pivotal figure in the Q movement.

The Deep State's Final Act and the Great Awakening

Joe Biden's COVID diagnosis on July 17, 2024, symbolized the Deep State's desperation. White Hat insiders revealed Biden had been executed in 2020, replaced by actors in a scripted narrative. Humanity now stands on the brink of unprecedented transformation, with the Great Awakening promising a golden era of truth, innovation, and unity.

The British Crown and the Monarchy

On July 22, 2024, the British Crown's dissolution years earlier was highlighted due to high treason by the UK government. The monarchy's role was reduced to 'The Head of State' of a bankrupt corporation, the City of London. Tony Blair's fraudulent acts and the invoking of Magna Carta Article 61 in 2001 emphasized the reinstatement of Common Law as the land's true law.

War Crimes and Global Collusion

The illegal Iraq war in 2001 led to over a million deaths, with figures like George Bush, Tony Blair, and others implicated. Julian Assange's imprisonment shed light on these war crimes and further allegations regarding 9/11 and global collusion.

Awakening and Symbolic Events

For the past five to six years, the dismantling of the old guard has been evident. Acts such as Trump's 2018 walk in front of the Queen and his world tour in 2017 symbolized the end of the monarchy and the Cabal's influence.

The Transition to a Corporate Entity (1871): Establishment of the U.S. Corporation

The Act of 1871 fundamentally altered the nature of the U.S. government by creating a corporate entity for the District of Columbia. This reorganization centralized federal power and subjected the country to the jurisdiction of international bankers. By establishing Washington, D.C. as a municipal corporation, the Act effectively placed the United States under corporate governance, reducing states and citizens to subordinate roles.

Impact on Governance and Citizens

Under the corporate framework, the U.S. Constitution was transformed into a corporate charter. This shift prioritized the interests of elite financial groups over the democratic aspirations of the people. Citizens, through birth certificates and social security numbers, were effectively enrolled as assets within this corporate structure, bound by statutes and codes that superseded constitutional rights.

- The Constitution, originally meant to protect citizens, became a corporate charter serving the elite.
- Citizens became collateral in the corporate structure, bound by statutes and codes rather than constitutional rights.

The Federal Reserve and Fiat Currency: Origins and Intent

The Federal Reserve, often seen as the central banking system of the United States, wields immense power over the nation's economy. Established in 1913, the Federal Reserve was designed to control inflation, stabilize the economy, and regulate interest rates. However, beneath its surface lies a more insidious truth: it operates as a private entity, largely unaccountable to the American people.

The founding of the Federal Reserve is shrouded in mystery and controversy. The Federal Reserve Act, passed during Woodrow Wilson's administration, came at a time of financial instability and growing concerns about economic monopolies. The decision to create the Federal Reserve was made by a group of powerful bankers and industrialists—men far removed from the needs of the common citizen. These elites aimed to centralize control over money and credit in their own hands.

The creation of the Federal Reserve allowed the government to borrow money from private banks rather than relying on taxpayer funds. This system granted banking elites the power to issue and regulate the nation's currency, enabling them to dictate economic policy. The Federal Reserve's influence extends globally, shaping international financial systems. Many historians argue that it is the heart of a global banking empire, one that has manipulated financial systems for over a century. The centralization of economic power into the hands of a few has resulted in the creation of boom-and-bust cycles, economic depressions, and the perpetual devaluation of currency. This system has enriched a small group of individuals and institutions at the expense of the wider population.

Key Milestones

- The Act of 1871 marked the transition of the United States from a republic to a corporation.
- This legal shift placed the U.S. under the jurisdiction of maritime law, centralizing power and creating an entity controlled by foreign interests.
- The Federal Reserve Act of 1913 created a private banking system under the guise of a national institution. Its primary goal: to control the U.S. money supply, enabling manipulation of the economy for elite gain.

Transition to Fiat Currency

The Nixon administration's decision to abandon the gold standard in 1971 marked a turning point. By decoupling the U.S. dollar from tangible assets, the Federal Reserve gained unlimited capacity to print money. This shift led to inflation, devaluation of savings, and growing economic disparity. Fiat currency became a tool for wealth redistribution, favoring the elite while burdening the middle and lower classes.

- The removal of the gold standard in 1971 allowed the Federal Reserve to issue currency without tangible backing.
- The resulting inflation and economic instability paved the way for global financial control.

BlackRock and Financial Connections

BlackRock, a dominant financial entity, is primarily owned by Bank of America (BoA) and Berkshire Hathaway. Bank of America holds significant Vatican properties. Warren Buffet's Berkshire Hathaway owns 18.8% of Bank of America, which ranks as the second-largest bank in the U.S. and globally, trailing JPMorgan Chase. Both institutions are member banks of the Federal Reserve Bank.

These banks have been implicated in laundering money for Latin American drug cartels, as noted in various reports. While individuals caught selling small amounts of drugs face severe penalties, large banking entities profiting from trafficking tons of drugs operate without repercussions. Moreover, drug cartels—notably those modeled on the Medellín Cartel, co-founded by Nazi officer Klaus Barbie—have expanded into human trafficking.

Historical Role of Aristocracies

The foundations of prominent American "Blue Blood" families were built on the opium trade, spearheaded by the East India Company under the British Crown. When China attempted to curb the trade, the British Royal Navy enforced it, resulting in the Opium Wars. These events intertwine drug trafficking, human exploitation, and aristocratic power structures.

The Black Nobility and Vatican Connections

Key Italian lineages (Massimo, Colonna, Torlonia, etc.) oversee societal sectors, while Swiss tax advisors like the Erlach and Brandi families support corruption. Wealth flows from Italian mafias to Vatican-controlled Swiss banks via the Vatican Bank.

- The Vatican, established as a nation in 1929 under Mussolini, functions as a central control hub.
- The Black Nobility—owning entities like the Knights of Malta, Jesuits, and mafias—is instrumental in global governance, including the UN and World Economic Forum.

White Hat Countermeasures

- The takeover of the Federal Reserve by White Hats marked the beginning of a shift back to asset-backed currency.
- Using advanced systems like Aladdin AI, they exposed fraudulent financial activities and tracked illicit funds. These efforts laid the groundwork for dismantling the fiat system and restoring economic sovereignty.
- General Michael Flynn exposed the Obama administration's funding and arming of jihadists, which later evolved into ISIS. He highlighted the orchestrated Arab Spring and migration crises as tools of destabilization.

Unseen Forces, Election Manipulation, and Military Interventions

The United States, often hailed as a beacon of democracy, has experienced a hidden, tumultuous struggle over its very foundation. Behind the scenes of elections and political events, an intricate web of power, influence, and covert operations has shaped the course of history. This documentary explores key moments and events that have exposed the United States to a deep-seated battle for control—where the military, intelligence networks, and shadowy forces within the government wage war for the soul of the nation.

The 2020 U.S. Election and the Military Response

The 2020 U.S. presidential election was not merely a political contest—it was part of a larger, multi-layered military operation. For decades, U.S. elections had been manipulated by the "Deep State," a clandestine network of power brokers that used intelligence, military operations, and financial networks to control outcomes. This shadowy faction often had the support of high-ranking officials, including those within the CIA, the Vatican, and foreign governments such as the Chinese Communist Party (CCP).

However, the tides shifted in 2016. In that year, military forces, referred to as the White Hats, intervened in the presidential election to counter the Deep State's influence. Military intelligence agents allegedly reversed tampering mechanisms just minutes before polls closed, ensuring a victory for Donald Trump. This marked a critical turning point, with the military enacting "Storm Operations" aimed at restoring constitutional order and removing corrupt influences.

In the wake of Trump's election, a series of covert military operations unfolded, targeting global financial systems and financial hubs in places like Switzerland, China, and the Vatican. These operations seized vast sums of wealth, including gold and other assets, exposing deep levels of financial manipulation.

The 2020 Election: Part of a Greater Military Strategy

The 2020 election, despite its overt controversy, was part of a broader military strategy designed to expose and dismantle systemic corruption. The White Hats allegedly allowed the Deep State to "win" in order to further destabilize the nation, create chaos, and bring the corrupt system to light. According to reports, the real Joe Biden had been removed from public life and replaced with a stand-in.

In an operation said to involve military intervention, a failed assassination attempt on Trump was foiled by forces working to prevent his harm. This incident, followed by large-scale IT blackouts and arrests of intelligence agents, marked a critical phase in the fight for control of the U.S. government.

Raland J. Brunson and the Legal Struggle

On October 13, 2022, Raland J. Brunson filed a monumental legal case alleging national security breaches and treason by high-ranking officials, including President Joe Biden, Vice President Kamala Harris, and members of Congress. This case highlighted the failure to investigate the 2020 election fraud, a violation of Brunson's constitutional rights, and a direct act of war against the U.S. Constitution.

Brunson's legal challenge argued that by not addressing the fraud claims, the U.S. government had betrayed the Republic, rendering the current administration illegitimate.

Martial Law and Military Takeover: A Nation under Siege

Faced with allegations of treason and election fraud, President Trump reportedly declared Martial Law in early 2020. Under this declaration, Trump maintained control over the military, taking extraordinary steps to secure national assets and begin dismantling corrupt political structures. The U.S. military, under Trump's leadership, initiated operations to expose and remove those involved in the election fraud and foreign interference.

The Military Code 11.3 invoked during this period established a dual-government structure. While the Biden administration assumed its role, the true leadership was claimed to rest with the military as it set in motion a long-term strategy to restore the U.S. to constitutional order.

Reports suggest that the military seized critical assets, including those associated with the CIA and major financial players, in an effort to neutralize the influence of global elites and foreign powers, especially the CCP.

The Arrests, Tribunals, and Restoring the Republic

The most dramatic moment in the struggle came on January 18, 2023, when a large-scale arrest operation targeted members of Congress accused of treasonous activities. More than 200 officials were detained, with key figures facing charges of election fraud and foreign interference, particularly the CCP's involvement in the election.

Following these arrests, military tribunals began at Guantanamo Bay (GITMO), with high-profile figures like the Clintons, Obamas, and Bushes facing charges related to treason, election fraud, and crimes against humanity. Many of these individuals were also implicated in criminal activities such as human trafficking, money laundering, and crimes tied to events like the 9/11 attacks and the Benghazi incident.

The Battle against the CCP and Globalism

Parallel to the internal conflict, the U.S. military engaged in an ideological and geopolitical battle with the Chinese Communist Party (CCP), particularly over control of Taiwan and gold reserves crucial to the Global Currency Reset. On January 28, 2020, U.S. and Taiwanese forces successfully thwarted the CCP's attempts to take control of Taiwan. This victory, analysts argue, marked the end of a critical phase in the struggle for global dominance, as it dealt a significant blow to the agenda of global elites and the New World Order.

This battle between the U.S. and CCP was more than a regional contest—it was a struggle for global influence, with significant ramifications for the international financial system.

Exposure of Corruption and Human Trafficking

As the military continued its operations, the country was rocked by revelations of deep corruption, particularly involving child sex trafficking rings that had infiltrated government, business, and entertainment sectors. These rings, allegedly connected to powerful global networks, had been used to blackmail politicians and business leaders, keeping them compliant with the demands of corrupt elites.

Military and police operations led to the rescue of children from underground tunnels beneath Capitol Hill and other government buildings. The scope of these criminal activities, which allegedly included figures such as Joe Biden, painted a grim picture of the state of the U.S. political system.

A Global Alliance for Change

The military's efforts, however, were not limited to the U.S. The rise of a global alliance, composed of military, political, and business leaders, aimed to dismantle the globalist structures that perpetuated corruption and human trafficking. This alliance, used media platforms and documentaries like Sound of Freedom to expose human trafficking and other illicit activities.

These global efforts sought not only to expose the power dynamics within the U.S. but also the international scope of corruption, linking agencies like the CIA, MI6, and Mossad to criminal activities, including the Epstein scandal.

A Shift toward Restored Constitutional Law

At the core of this military operation was the goal of returning to the original U.S. Constitution, as it existed prior to the corporate takeover of the government in 1871. This effort aimed to dismantle the corrupt systems that had infiltrated the U.S. and return the power to the people.

The culmination of these efforts occurred on January 11, 2021, with the inauguration of Donald Trump as President of the Restored Republic. This moment, further solidified on July 4, 2021, with the swearing-in of John F. Kennedy Jr. as Vice President, marked the beginning of a new chapter in the nation's history, one that sought to reestablish the constitutional order.

The Event and the Global Transition

The timeline of global change begins with what is referred to as "The Event," a monumental shift expected to fundamentally alter the world order. This event, shrouded in secrecy, is slated to involve a series of coordinated military operations aimed at dismantling the key power centers of the world. Among the first targets are the Vatican, Buckingham Palace, and the White House—symbolic institutions of power and influence. These operations are said to utilize cutting-edge technologies like the "Rods of God" and "Directed Energy Weapons," capable of precise destruction of infrastructure at a global scale.

Simultaneously, a worldwide blackout is planned, designed to serve as a transition point. This blackout will enable the shift away from fossil fuels and centralized energy systems to alternatives inspired by Nikola Tesla's concepts of free energy. The blackout will also coincide with the collapse of existing financial systems, including cryptocurrency and centralized banking, which will give way to a new economic order. This new system, purportedly backed by precious metals, will seek to replace the old monetary structures.

In the aftermath of the event, the world will supposedly undergo a radical transformation that is in line with the principles outlined in the Global Economic Security and Reformation Act (GESARA). This act envisions a system where the global financial structure is overhauled, power is decentralized, and justice is restored. Central to this transformation will be the widespread implementation of martial law, the cessation of mainstream media influence, and the establishment of a new financial system free from the grip of the global elite.

Military Tribunals and the Coming Reconciliation

The military tribunals that will follow these operations are said to play a crucial role in exposing the extent of global corruption. At the heart of these tribunals is the need to bring justice to those accused of manipulating the world for their own gain. Prominent figures are expected to be tried for their roles in a vast array of covert activities, many of which have impacted nations and individuals at the highest levels. Public confessions, along with the presentation of evidence in a “10-day movie” format, will allegedly lay bare the true scope of these actions.

The aftermath of these trials will see the dismantling of the so-called Deep State and the installation of a new world order. This new order will allegedly be centered on the principles of truth, justice, and fairness. Key players such as Donald Trump, military leaders, and other figures are believed to be actively working to protect the nation from future threats, ensuring a transition that will return sovereignty to the people.

The Return to Sovereignty: The U.S. and Global Power Shifts

The history of the United States and its role in the global transition begins with a startling revelation: since October 10, 2000, the U.S. has been governed by the original Constitution of the Republic of the United States. Despite this, the public remains largely unaware, as power continues to be manipulated through Admiralty Law by those who have a vested interest in maintaining control. This manipulation has seen the rise of global power structures that have often operated beyond the public’s sight.

Key Milestones in the Shift of Power

- 2015: Donald Trump, allegedly recruited by U.S. military intelligence, begins his efforts to counter the Cabal—an elite group with global control.
- 2016: Trump’s presidential run shocked the Cabal, as it became clear that his actions would challenge their power structures.
- 2017 Inauguration: Trump pledges to transfer power back to the people, symbolically dismantling Washington, D.C., a key part of the global power trinity alongside the Vatican and London City.

These early actions set the stage for a larger global military operation aimed at removing the entrenched powers. As part of this effort, the Three Gorges Dam in China was cleared of underground facilities, and operations were launched against the Chinese Communist Party (CCP) and its influence in Taiwan. Simultaneously, undersea cables and bioweapons labs were neutralized under the guise of geopolitical conflict.

Israel and the Middle East: The Battle against Khazarian Influence

In the Middle East, particularly Israel, covert operations are underway to remove Khazarian influence. The Khazarian elites, descendants of the Ashkenazi Jews, are said to have orchestrated much of the global manipulation, including the world wars, the establishment of the Federal Reserve, and the creation of the United Nations. Israel's central role in the global power structure has made it a significant target in these global operations, with White Hats (covert operatives) working to expose and dismantle this network.

High-Profile Figures and the Dismantling of the Deep State

As the global military operations unfold, the public will also witness high-profile trials, including those of political figures allegedly involved in crimes against humanity. Figures like Ellen DeGeneres and Barack Obama are among those accused, with Obama's presidency allegedly built on a forged birth certificate, which experts claim contains multiple points of forgery. These revelations have set the stage for what many expect to be a broader purge of corruption at the highest levels.

Military tribunals will serve as the primary means of prosecuting those involved in treason and crimes against humanity. These tribunals operate outside the civilian judicial system, ensuring that justice is served in cases that the federal or traditional courts cannot handle.

The Deep State's Global Agendas

The actions of the Deep State—referred to as globalist elites—have long been focused on maintaining power through methods such as bioweapons, economic collapse, and the imposition of martial law. These elites have sought to implement a totalitarian world order, but efforts by Trump and his allies have exposed their plans. The resultant loss of trust in the deep state's mainstream media arm, coupled with the rise of alternative platforms, has shifted the global narrative.

NATO and the Cabal's Role in Global Conflict

NATO's involvement in the orchestration of World War III came to light on July 11, 2024, when U.S. F-16 fighter jets were deployed to Ukraine. This deployment coincided with Russia's destruction of a major child sex trafficking and organ harvesting operation in the region. Ukraine and Israel were revealed to be central hubs for illegal bio-weapon labs and money laundering operations, highlighting the extent of global corruption.

The Role of Freemasonry, Elites, and Ancient Societies

Freemasonry, particularly its lower degrees, is undergoing a purge, as part of a broader effort to dismantle the systems of control that have kept elites in power for centuries. Individuals such as Klaus Schwab, Elon Musk, and Jeff Bezos have been removed, signaling the end of an era of technological and financial dominance by a few.

The influence of ancient secret societies, such as the Illuminati, is also explored in this narrative. Tracing their roots to the Knights Templar and their discoveries—including Solomon's gold and possibly the Ark of the Covenant—these societies are alleged to have shaped global events for centuries. Their connections to the Khazarian elites and modern banking empires are central to understanding the present power structures.

Exploitation and Control: The Dark Underbelly of Global Elites

Central to the actions of the Deep State is the exploitation of children, a theme that spans across numerous institutions, from the CIA to Hollywood and beyond. The evidence of widespread abuse, including the notorious Epstein Island, has implicated numerous high-profile figures, such as Prince Andrew, the Clintons, and others in the global elite. These revelations have led to a series of investigations and arrests, with child trafficking networks being dismantled in countries like Canada, Colombia, and Australia.

As these operations unfold, the world watches as the power structures of the past are systematically dismantled. Whether these predictions will unfold as anticipated remains to be seen, but the narrative promises a world-changing transformation, driven by covert military operations, strategic planning, and a profound realignment of global power.

Global Crisis: Natural Disasters, AI Control, and Censorship

One of the critical aspects of the modern struggle is the manipulation of natural events. The HAARP facility in Alaska has long been tied to allegations of weather control technology that can influence global climates, create natural disasters, and even alter human behavior using artificial intelligence. The powerful elite are controlling humanity through a combination of environmental manipulation and technological oversight.

Simultaneously, the battle over free speech intensifies. Social media platforms like Rumble and GAB have been targeted for censorship by shadowy government forces, with the arrest of their CEOs seen as a direct effort to suppress alternative viewpoints. This marks a shift toward tightening control over the narrative that the public is fed.

The Hidden Hand behind Wars

Throughout history, wars have served as a means for elites to consolidate power and acquire resources. World Wars I and II, along with conflicts in Vietnam, Iraq, and Afghanistan, are portrayed not as struggles between nations, but as calculated strategies engineered by a handful of global elites. Financial families, including the Rothschilds, are alleged to have profited from these wars, not just in terms of war financing, but also through post-war reconstruction.

Wars like these have frequently masked deeper geopolitical and financial motives. The Vietnam War, Gulf War, and the so-called "War on Terror" were all said to benefit the military-industrial complex—an intricate alliance between defense contractors, political figures, and bankers—designed to maintain economic dominance, expand territorial control, and centralize global power.

The Formation of ISIS and its Ties to U.S. Leadership

The Obama-Biden administration's alleged involvement in creating and arming ISIS has been a point of contention, with claims that billions of dollars were funneled to the group through Iran. This destabilized the Middle East, leading to widespread terrorism. Simultaneously, accusations surfaced of election manipulation through programs like “Hammer” and “Scoreboard,” believed to have been used during the 2008 election.

The Benghazi Incident and the Deaths of Seal Team Six

In 2011, the narrative surrounding the death of Osama bin Laden became questionable. Obama and CIA Director John Brennan reportedly orchestrated a staged assassination, with claims that a body double was used in place of bin Laden. This secrecy and the subsequent deaths of 22 Navy SEALs in a helicopter crash added further intrigue, particularly with the discovery of a stinger missile at the site traced back to the CIA. The 2012 Benghazi attack further fueled speculations about weapon trafficking and cover-ups tied to Middle Eastern operations.

Domestic Manipulations and Propaganda

Domestically, the Obama administration legalized propaganda through HR 4310, signed into law in 2013. This legislation allowed for the manipulation of public perception and facilitated spying on political opponents, including Donald Trump. The administration was also involved in exploiting the media, IRS resources, and international child trafficking networks.

The New World Order and Elite Control

The concept of a "New World Order" stretches back centuries, emerging through secret societies like the Illuminati and Freemasons, which worked to subvert national sovereignties. Over time, this movement aimed to replace nation-states with a global governance system, where a small group of elites controlled all aspects of life—economic, political, and military.

Influential groups like the Bilderberg Group, which consists of political leaders, businessmen, and bankers, have been accused of shaping global policies and selecting political figures. Additionally, international institutions such as the United Nations and the World Trade Organization have been viewed by critics as instruments to further the globalist agenda.

The War for Your Mind: Media, Education, and Technology

The modern war for control takes place in the realm of information. From Hollywood films to biased news networks, the media has long been used to influence public opinion. The educational system, once an institution for critical thought, is now seen as a tool for indoctrinating future generations into a globalist mindset. Corporate sponsorships and standardized curriculums allegedly guide this shift.

Technology has also played a crucial role. AI and social media platforms now track and manipulate public behavior, providing unparalleled opportunities for surveillance and control. The elite now have the ability to steer narratives through sophisticated algorithms, influencing everything from political opinions to consumer behavior.

The Global Military Alliance and US Space Force

In March 2020, the Global Military Alliance under the U.S. Space Force began operations based on the U.S. Law of War Manual. The alliance focused on individuals and entities involved in subjugating humanity through bio-weapon vaccinations and other covert operations. This alliance's efforts were further supported in July 2024, as military forces stationed around the world aimed to dismantle the Deep State Cabal. This period marked the beginning of what was referred to as the Great Awakening, promising to reshape civilization by exposing hidden power structures.

The Quantum Voting System and Financial Reset

An innovative approach to election integrity, the Quantum Voting System, was introduced to ensure transparent elections using blockchain technology. A test was scheduled for March 4, 2021, as part of an effort to rebuild trust in the electoral process.

In parallel, Executive Order 13818 facilitated the capture of influential financial entities like BlackRock and Vanguard. These entities, accused of participating in illegal banking transactions, were key players in a controlled economic collapse, setting the stage for a global currency reset. BRICS+ countries were also seen as integral to this effort, fostering international cooperation for reform and awakening the public to economic realities.

The Great Awakening: A Worldwide Revolution By 2024, more than two billion people globally had aligned themselves with the Great Awakening—a movement dedicated to exposing and dismantling the corrupt global elite. This awakening has led to the unmasking of many high-profile figures, believed to be dead, who allegedly faked their deaths to evade the reach of powerful forces. Celebrities like James Dean, Michael Jackson, and even Elvis Presley have reemerged, sparking questions about the true extent of their involvement in the hidden power structures of the world.

The Eternal Battle: Dark vs. Light The eternal struggle between Light and Dark is not merely spiritual metaphor but an age-old, cosmic conflict. This battle, which represents the clash between Satan and God, has played out through the lineage of their respective bloodlines—Satan's reptilian bloodline and Jesus's human bloodline. Over millennia, this conflict has influenced the destinies of nations, with forces of darkness working relentlessly to divide, corrupt, and control humanity.

The COVID-19 pandemic exposed many of the hidden systems of corruption controlling humanity, spanning healthcare, politics, and religion. These systems, which have been concealed behind layers of deception, are but a glimpse of the broader spiritual war. Israel, long a focal point of spiritual conflict, will eventually be the site where the full revelation of these systemic evils takes place. The hijacking of sacred scripture by Satan's forces will be exposed for all to witness.

The Snakes in the Garden: Spiritual Deception The serpent in the Garden of Eden is not a mere symbolic figure but a representation of the dark forces that have infiltrated every aspect of human life. For millennia, this serpent-like influence has subtly maneuvered through history, embedding lies, division, and deceit into human systems. One of its most significant manifestations is in the Vatican, the spiritual heart of the Roman Catholic Church, which has long been associated with serpent symbolism.

The Silk Road, once the trade route spanning Europe to Asia, is metaphorically the “body” of this serpent, its reach extending as far as Wuhan, China, where the COVID-19 virus initially emerged. This covert operation of both spiritual and physical manipulation continues to affect the world, with Israel positioned as the final battleground to reclaim humanity from darkness.

The false light propagated by these forces, rooted in fear, shame, and guilt, has severed humanity’s connection to God. At the heart of this spiritual rift lies a small elite group—the satanic cabal or Illuminati—who have profited from the suffering and control of the masses. These elites have orchestrated global systems designed to perpetuate division and maintain control.

The Royal Families and Their Bloodlines The royal families of Europe, the Baltics, and Russia trace their origins back to ancient figures such as Wotan or Odin, whose serpent-like symbolism is evident in their names and iconography. These royal families are believed to be descendants of ancient reptilian hybrids, beings intertwined with the original serpent bloodline. Over centuries, these families have wielded significant power, manipulating both religious and political systems to maintain their dominance.

The symbolism of the serpent within the Catholic Church is also extensive. In St. Peter's Basilica, for example, the pope sits symbolically in the mouth of a serpent, underscoring the role of the Vatican in perpetuating spiritual deception. From this seat of power, the Vatican has been instrumental in keeping humanity in spiritual darkness and control.

The Druze Bloodline and Abraham Lincoln The Druze people, descendants of Jethro, the priest of Midian from the Bible, represent a key bloodline tied to the teachings of Jesus. This bloodline, often overlooked by mainstream history, plays a significant role in understanding the true lineage of Christ’s followers. One of the most notable descendants of this bloodline is Abraham Lincoln, the 16th President of the United States, who traced his ancestry back to the Kahlooni family.

Lincoln's presidency, marked by efforts to abolish slavery and preserve the Union, can be seen as part of a broader spiritual struggle against oppression and control. His connection to the Druze bloodline suggests that his actions were not only political but part of a larger divine narrative to resist the forces of darkness.

The Eternal War: Darkness vs. Light Human history is inextricably bound to the battle between Darkness and Light. This war transcends physical realms, encompassing spiritual dimensions. Central to this conflict is the clash between the reptilian bloodline of Satan and the human bloodline of Jesus Christ.

The Hijacking of Scripture and the Dimmed Light of Humanity Religious corruption has played a pivotal role in dimming humanity's connection to God. Israel, as a central point of this drama, will eventually reveal the root of all corruption and spiritual darkness within religious institutions. The hijacking of scripture by Satan's forces, sowing fear, shame, and guilt, has severed humanity from its divine connection and the love that is its true essence.

The metaphor of the snake encapsulates this infiltration, with the serpent entering the Garden of Eden and embedding itself in the systems that govern human life. This manipulation unfolds in three key stages:

- The Head: The Vatican, symbolizing centralized control of spiritual deception, where the pope preaches from a position representing the mouth of a serpent.
- The Body: The Silk Road, a pathway that reaches to Wuhan, China, spreading spiritual and physical venom across the globe.
- The Pit: Israel, the location where scripture has been distorted, resulting in centuries of division along religious, racial, and political lines. This division serves the interests of a small, controlling elite—referred to as the Satanic Elite or Illuminati.

Biblical Prophecy and the Khazarian Mafia Ancient prophecies have long pointed to Israel as the stage for world-altering events, but much of this prophetic narrative has been manipulated by those in power. Israel is not merely a location within this drama; it is the symbolic and strategic center of a global narrative orchestrated by Zionists and the Khazarian Mafia.

The true agenda behind these power structures is the creation of a New World Order—a world where global media, political systems, and financial institutions are controlled by a small, elite group. This is not a mere theory, but the reality being engineered by those who seek to establish a global totalitarian regime, with Israel as its focal point.

The True Agenda: A Deceptive World For years, the masses have been fed a false narrative—an illusion designed to keep people in ignorance. Through the manipulation of media, the engineering of economic crises, and the orchestration of regional conflicts like the one with Iran, the elites have created a global system where they hold all the power. The goal is to plunge the world into chaos, from which a more controlled, authoritarian global system will emerge.

But as the tides of history shift, the collapse of centralized power signals the beginning of a new era, one ripe for transformation.

Bloodlines and Power Structures The consolidation of power through specific bloodlines has been a defining feature of this eternal struggle. Notable aspects of these power structures include:

- Reptilian Hybrids: Thirteen royal families in Europe and surrounding regions trace their ancestry back to Wotan or Odin, figures associated with serpent-reptilian symbolism. These families, believed to be shape-shifters in human form, maintain global control.
- Druze Bloodline: The descendants of Jethro, linked to biblical figures and, notably, Abraham Lincoln. This bloodline plays a crucial role in resisting the forces of darkness.
- ISIS Formation and Mergers:

- 1855: Formed by the Moroccan and Libyan kings (Hassan family) alongside the British royal family.
- 1861: Merged with Skull and Bones (322), involving families like the Rothschilds and Rockefellers, with the aim of extinguishing the Druze bloodline and controlling global systems.

Conclusion: The Battle for Humanity's Soul The struggle between Light and Dark is not a distant tale but a present-day reality, one that is shaping the future of humanity. With the Great Awakening gaining momentum and the unveiling of hidden truths, the world stands on the precipice of a new era, one where humanity will reclaim its divine connection and the forces of darkness will be exposed for all to see. The battle is far from over, but the tide is turning, and the light is beginning to break through the centuries-old shadows.

A Global Renaissance and Restoration

As humanity approaches a critical juncture in its history, plans for a global renaissance are unfolding, with the aim of dismantling corrupt institutions and restoring sovereignty to nations. This sweeping vision encompasses not only the United States but also the broader world, heralding the dawn of a new era rooted in justice, truth, and freedom. These events are set in motion by a series of interconnected global and technological shifts, each aimed at undoing centuries of control by hidden elites and empowering ordinary citizens to reclaim their rights and responsibilities.

Beyond America: A Global Renaissance

One of the central tenets of this revolution is the dismantling of corrupt global institutions, such as the United Nations (UN) and the World Health Organization (WHO). These bodies, which have long been suspected of undermining national sovereignty, are poised for restructuring. At the heart of this reorganization is the establishment of a multipolar world order, where nations are no longer beholden to centralized powers, but instead collaborate based on mutual respect for sovereignty.

Technological Advancements and Quantum Systems

The technological landscape is undergoing a seismic shift, as the world transitions to quantum systems for finance, governance, and communication. Quantum technologies, such as ISO20022 tokens like XRP and XLM, will serve as the backbone of the new global economy, working in tandem with traditional assets like gold and silver. This marks a decisive break from the fiat currency systems that have long been manipulated by powerful elites.

Restoring the Constitution and Sovereignty

In the United States, efforts are underway to return to the original constitutional framework established in 1776. This shift is aimed at empowering citizens to reclaim their rights and governance, dismantling the systems that have eroded democratic institutions. Strategic military operations are projected to bring about monumental reforms, including the closing of borders to halt human trafficking, strengthening the U.S. dollar, and transitioning to paper ballot voting to restore election integrity.

Further plans involve defunding organizations that have propagated climate change propaganda and gender-based agendas, protecting the unborn, and lowering taxes to alleviate the burden on citizens. The ultimate goal is to restore trust in governance and dismantle systems of oppression that have subjugated populations for centuries.

A Controlled Collapse: White Hat Strategy

Central to this global shift is the strategy of controlled collapse, wherein the influence of powerful organizations like BlackRock, CrowdStrike, and Dominion is strategically undermined. The BRICS+ initiative, an emerging alliance of nations, plays a pivotal role in aligning with the broader objectives of these covert "White Hat" operations. In the coming years, economic warfare will target fiat currencies, guiding the world toward asset-backed systems based on silver, gold, and other tangible resources.

Tesla, Time Travel, and the Military Protocol

Beyond the political and economic shifts lies a deeper, more mysterious layer of the story. The work of Nikola Tesla, once believed to be lost, is being rediscovered as an integral part of this global transformation. Tesla's groundbreaking experiments with high-voltage phenomena, electron acceleration, and even time travel are said to be intertwined with the history of Donald Trump. His uncle, John G. Trump, a renowned MIT professor, played a critical role in Tesla's research, particularly in time manipulation and energy devices.

As the world braces for the activation of the WWG1WGA protocol, a highly classified military strategy, a new era of time manipulation and interdimensional travel will begin. Through the activation of Tesla's time machine, humanity is set to transition into a new dimension, where truth, justice, and freedom will reign supreme.

Project Odin: The Quantum Shift

Simultaneously, a covert military operation known as Project Odin is taking shape. Centered on the Emergency Broadcast System (EBS), this initiative is designed to usher in the quantum system that will free the world from the grip of the Cabal. The transition will be marked by a worldwide communications blackout, followed by the activation of NESARA/GESARA—two sets of protocols that aim to restore justice, equity, and balance to the global system.

The key goal of these efforts is the complete eradication of the Satanic Illuminati, a shadowy cabal that has controlled much of the world's power through institutions like the Vatican, Buckingham Palace, and the White House. Directed Energy Weapons (DEW) and the Rods of God will be used to target key sites, clearing the way for a new world order founded on freedom and prosperity.

The Role of Julian Assange and the Trans-National Elite

Julian Assange's revelations about the trans-national security elite have illuminated the vast corruption at the heart of global institutions. According to Assange, a network of alliances has been laundering money through war-torn regions such as Iraq, Somalia, Yemen, and Pakistan, enriching a select few at the cost of global stability. To date, this operation has led to the elimination of at least eight million individuals worldwide, with military tribunals serving as the means of addressing these crimes.

The Significance of Israel

One of the most significant aspects of this global awakening is the role of Israel. The statement "Israel was saved for last" highlights its central role in dismantling the global deep state. This is not a critique of Judaism but rather an exposé of the Kazarian lineage—a group of northern European origin that adopted Judaism under questionable circumstances. These individuals are believed to have established influential institutions like the Rothschild banking dynasty and played a central role in the creation of the Illuminati in 1776.

The Kazarian elites are alleged to have manipulated global politics and financial systems, exerting undue influence over institutions such as the United Nations and the Federal Reserve. Their power has been maintained through wars, propaganda, and covert operations designed to consolidate their control over global affairs.

Trump's Role and the Military Operation

Donald Trump's presidency marked a pivotal moment in the effort to expose and dismantle a captured U.S. government. By removing the U.S. from the 1871 Corporate Act, Trump set in motion a legal and military strategy to reclaim national sovereignty. The "Stop the Steal" rally, originally thought to be a trap orchestrated by CIA operatives, was ultimately nullified through Trump's strategic maneuvers.

The ongoing military operation, operating under a veil of secrecy, has successfully trapped corrupt officials within their own systems. As part of this covert operation, the National Guard has remained under active-duty status since March 2020, playing a crucial role in the unfolding events.

Looking Ahead: The Restoration of Earth

The restoration of Earth is not just a political or economic endeavor—it is a spiritual awakening. As the global systems of control are dismantled, humanity is poised to enter a new era of enlightenment, where sovereignty, truth, and justice are no longer the domain of elites but are shared by all. Through this monumental transformation, the world will step into an age of peace and prosperity, free from the shackles of corruption and oppression.

This is a time of great change, one that will define the future of humanity and the planet for generations to come. As these events unfold, it is clear that a new world is emerging—a world founded on the principles of justice, freedom, and the sovereignty of nations and individuals alike.
