

Method Analysis of The Top 10 Names, Places, Geographies, Events and Words in Scripture

Abstract

This study applies the multi-method analytical framework developed in 'KJV By Numbers' to the ten most significant biblical names, places, geographic features, events, and doctrinal words in Scripture. Through structural, textual, numerical, and integrated reference analysis, the work demonstrates how independent layers of biblical architecture consistently converge upon the same redemptive storyline: creation, fall, judgment, covenant, law, kingdom, Messiah, redemption, grace, and final restoration. The analysis explores numerical relationships in names, references, and thematic structures while emphasizing the synchronization between people, places, geography, events, doctrine, and covenant history. Special attention is given to the dual biblical symbolism of the number 5 as both grace and death, reflecting the scriptural pattern that death often precedes resurrection, redemption, and divine favor. The resulting framework presents Scripture as a unified, multi-layered architectural system centered upon Jesus Christ and God's redemptive plan.

Method Analysis of The Top 10 Names, Places, Geographies, Events and Words in Scripture will actually demonstrate: what elements in the Bible most strongly mark the path of mankind's reconciliation with God — the journey from creation → fall → covenant → redemption → restoration.

Below are the ten most significant items in five categories based on their doctrinal importance to that journey in the King James Version narrative.

These are not merely historically important — they are structural anchors of the story of God redeeming mankind.

1. The 10 Most Important Names (People)

These individuals represent the key turning points in God's plan of redemption.

 6. Righteousness
 7. Covenant
 8. Salvation
 9. Love
 10. Kingdom

The Underlying Pattern

If we place these together, a single redemptive storyline emerges:

Stage	Example Elements
Creation	Adam, Eden
Fall	Sin

Stage	Example Elements
Judgment	Flood, Red Sea
Covenant	Abraham, Sinai
Kingdom	David, Zion
Redemption	Jesus, Calvary
Restoration	Kingdom of God, Second Coming

This progression is the central narrative structure of the entire Bible.

A Deeper Observation (Connected to “KJV by Numbers”)

These categories also mirror a five-layer structure of revelation:

1. People (Agents)
2. Places (Settings)
3. Geography (Creation itself)
4. Events (History)
5. Words (Doctrine)

In other words:

God reveals Himself through

- people
- places
- creation
- history
- language

This layered structure fits very naturally with the multi-method numerical analysis framework Ted and I have been developing in our KJV by Numbers project, because numbers appear consistently across all five layers.

The Structural Insight

This diagram reveals something remarkable:

The Bible's storyline unfolds simultaneously through three independent systems:

1. Human agents (people)
2. Historical locations (places)
3. Physical creation (geography)

All three systems synchronize perfectly with the redemptive narrative.

This strongly supports the idea that Scripture is built with intentional structural architecture, which aligns with the thesis behind our KJV by Numbers analysis methods.

The Seven Structural Pillars of the Bible

#	Redemptive Event	Covenant	Mountain
1	Creation — God creates man	Edenic Covenant — Dominion over creation	Eden — Garden of God
2	The Fall — Curse and promise	Adamic Covenant — Promise of redemption	Ararat — Ark rests after flood
3	The Flood — Judgment/preservation	Noahic Covenant — Covenant with all creation	Moriah — Isaac sacrifice test
4	Abraham Called — Nation promised	Abrahamic Covenant — Promise of land and seed	Sinai — Law later given here
5	Israel Established — Law and national order	Mosaic Covenant — Law given to Israel	Zion — Seat of kingdom
6	Kingdom & Messiah Line — Royal lineage established	Davidic Covenant — Eternal throne promised	Olivet — Ascension & return
7	Redemption & Restoration — Christ redeems mankind	New Covenant — Salvation through Christ	Armageddon — Final victory

The Mountain Pattern

Mountains appear repeatedly at moments where God reveals Himself.

1. Eden — fellowship with God
2. Ararat — survival after judgment
3. Moriah — sacrifice and substitution
4. Sinai — divine law
5. Zion — kingdom authority
6. Olivet — ascension and return
7. Armageddon — final victory

Mountains therefore act as spiritual “meeting points” between heaven and earth.
